SELECTION POLICY

The responsibility of the Panora Public Library is to serve all community, not to promote-and above not to censor any particular political, moral, philosophical, or religious conviction or opinions. It is not the purpose of the library to stimulate interest or cater to trivial, antisocial, or moral interests. But no one, least of all a free public library has the right to judge what another may or may not read or hear.

The Panora Public Library provides free service on equal terms to all individuals and groups in the community, both adults and children. It accepts the basic objectives as defined by the American Library Association. The function of the Panora Public Library is to assemble, organize, preserve and make easily and freely available to all people the printed and non-printed materials that will assist them in their daily lives.
